Psalm 100:3-5

³Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. ⁴Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. ⁵For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Pastor's Perspective

Dear Church Family,

Mother's day, final exams, readying for summer, vacation planning, graduations, Memorial Day, warmer weather, etc., etc., etc. All of these things add to the busyness of the month of May. As we approach all of this busyness, don't forget that you need to be fed spiritually. It is easy to allow everything else to get in the way of your relationship with God. However, since nothing is more important, find time to mature in your walk with the Lord. Is he your Lord?

The late C.S. Lewis wrote in his book Mere Christianity: "I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people say about Him: 'I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept his claim to be God.' That is one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic – on a level with a man who says he is a poached egg – or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make a choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God; or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to."

Colossians 1:17-20 says, "He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross." It is going to be a great May!
